

Le gouvernement est confronté au phénomène de désertion des fonctionnaires dans les régions anglophones en crise. Des abandons de postes se sont multipliés dans les deux régions du Nord-Ouest et du Sud-ouest, alors que ces personnels de l'Etat font l'objet d'enlèvements et d'assassinats ciblés. Ils sont au total 1002 enseignants, qui ont déserté depuis plusieurs mois les postes de service.

En effet, une liste de plus 1 000 enseignants déserteurs vient d'être publiée par le ministère de des enseignements secondaires, qui enjoint ceux-ci de regagner leurs différents postes.

A la lecture de cette liste il ressort que plus de 85% sont originaires des régions anglophones du pays. Tous ces enseignants déserteurs sont menacés de sanctions administratives si dans les 14 jours à compter de la date de publication de la note du ministre, ils ne retrouvent pas leur poste ou ne présente des justificatifs valables de leurs absences, à la direction des des ressources humaines du ministère.
